GLOBE MAN IN CHARGE, G. F. WEARN.

September 20, 1916
56 Years Ago To-day
The Prince of Wales, afterwards King Edward VII, of England, arrived at Detroit to tour the United States.
The late King Edward was one of the most democratic of sovereigns, and was, therefore, always popular with Americans. When one stops to consider the traditions and customs of the Old World, it is wonderful to know that in our free land any man with ability and uprightness of character may arise to the highest position, there being no caste or class distinction to debar him. A successful man must however be free from financial cares and worries—loadstones that will draw anyone downward.
Save through this Institution and insure a prosperous future.

Very sad indeed was the death of little Ruth Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Mitchell, which occurred at her home on Walhalla street Monday morning at 5 o'clock. She had been sick for two or three weeks and had suffered greatly during that time. Little hopes were entertained for her recovery for several days, and yet her death came as a distinct shock to the family and friends. Her little schoolmates were deeply grieved over her death, and her loss will be felt in the school room and in the Sunday school as well as in her own home. Impressive funeral services were held in the Westminster Baptist church at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. M. Fallaw, assisted by Rev. J. A. Martin, after which the remains were laid to rest in Eastview cemetery. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of many friends.

Body Brought to Columbia, this State, for Burial.

New London, Conn., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Anne E. Howe, only sister of President Wilson, died in a local hotel early to-day.

Mrs. Howe had been extremely ill for about a week with peritonitis and the end had been expected at any moment for the last two days.

Mrs. Howe came from her Philadelphia home in the early summer with her niece, Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, stopping at a summer hotel in the suburbs. Her health had long been impaired. With her were her two sons, Geo. Howe, of North Carolina, and Wilson Howe, of Richmond, and a daughter, Mrs. Cothran, of Philadelphia, besides Miss Wilson.

News of Mrs. Howe's death reached the President while he was at breakfast. He was greatly shocked, although he was told several days ago while at New London that it was impossible for her to live. He had planned to return to New London before her death.

The President Leaves.

Howe, who died yesterday at New London, Conn. GREENVILLE GUARDSMAN FIRED Upon by Mexican Guard at the International Bridge.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 17.—While wandering across the international bridge at the foot of Stanton street, over the Rio Grande river, last night, F. L. Smith, a private in the Butler Guards, of Greenville, narrowly escaped being shot by the Mexican guard patrolling that side of the river.

The bullet from the Mexican's gun whizzed close by Smith's head and the Mexican had his gun drawn and was sighting straight for Smith's head for his second shot when the American guard interfered and rescued the South Carolinian before the Mexican soldier could pull the trigger.

The Palmetto soldier was turned over to the provost marshal of the El Paso district, who kept him during the night and this morning turned him loose with instructions to get back to his camp.

It was first reported in El Paso last night that the South Carolinian was a member of the Palmetto Riflemen of Anderson, but Capt. Ligen, of that company, came to the city this afternoon, and on investigation found that the man was a private in Company A, of the First Regiment, the Butler Guards, of Greenville, commanded by Capt. Workman.

THE VOTE FOR GOVERNOR.

Manning's Majority Kept Consistent to Early Indications.

(The State.)

With complete returns from all but one county, and with official tabulations having been made in a majority of the counties, the early lead of Governor Manning of nearly 5,000 votes over Ex-Governor Blease has been sustained. Only two small boxes in McCormick county remain to be heard from. Excluding these, Mr. Manning's majority is 1,789. Slight errors were detected in a large proportion of the counties in making the official count, but the discrepancies practically balanced. The total vote recorded is 137,719 against 137,791 cast two weeks ago. The two outstanding boxes should bring the total up to that of the first primary.

By the official returns Georgetown, which has been a stronghold of Mr. Blease in several previous elections, is placed in the Manning column by 30 votes. Chesterfield, which was also designated as a doubtful county for two days after the ballots had been cast, but which had been practically conceded by some to the Blease forces, has also been carried by the present Governor. His lead in Chesterfield was 63. The addition of these two gives Governor Manning a clear majority of 28 of the 45 counties.

The 17 counties carried by Mr. Blease were: Abbeville, Aiken, Anderson, Charleston, Cherokee, Clarendon, Horry, Laurens, Lee, Newberry, Oconee, Pickens, Richland, Saluda, Spartanburg, Union and York.

on their side. No soldiers are allowed to cross the international boundary, and American soldiers are not permitted closer than 60 feet to the international bridge. Smith must have gotten by the guard last night unnoticed, for he was close to the Mexican end of the bridge when a shot from that guard brought him abruptly to a halt.

Atlanta.

Atlanta, Sept. 20.—Sixteen cents for cotton! And after 16 cents it may reach 17.

"The market has not reached that point here yet, but, according to the views of some cotton experts, and the general trend of the market, both local and foreign, 17 cents for the staple seems a decided probability.

Tuesday the quotation on local spot cotton jumped 40 points—to 15.80. And, a great many believe the stunt will be repeated to-day (Wednesday).

New York.

New York, Sept. 19.—The cotton market showed increasing strength and activity to-day with January selling up to 16.25, or 33 points above last night's closing figures and approximately $6 a bale above the low level of a week ago yesterday. Closing prices were very steady at a net advance of 27 to 31 points.

Miss McDonald, who has finished a very successful school session at this place, returned to her home at Blackstock last week.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alexander, a daughter.

The friends of W. D. Lusk will be glad to know that his health is much improved.

On last Sunday afternoon numbers of automobiles were seen on our highway. This is not an unusual sight, but there just happened to be an unusual number out on that afternoon. One gentleman who came through from Greenville remarked that he had found the roads in Oconee county quite as good as those he left behind. A neat little compliment to our county and our excellent Supervisor.

Miss Theo Hughes, Miss Janie Harrison and Joel Keys were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hayne Jones at Tamassée Place last Thursday afternoon.
